The GEOs Neighborhood is an award-winning, master planned new-urbanist community, that combines traditional neighborhood living with the most advanced sustainable design and green building practices. Members of the community will enjoy a pedestrian lifestyle with front porches, tree-lined sidewalks, community gardens, corner stores and Ralston Creek trail system. Only two miles from the new gold line light rail and 10 minutes to downtown Golden. This modern three story NET ZERO home features passive solar design, TESLA solar PV, geothermal heating and cooling and ENERGY STAR appliances. Watch the sun go down over the mountains from your second story deck or third story private master suite balcony. All home sites offer mountain views and quick access to walking/biking trails outside your door. Photos represent examples of finishes, home is under construction.
